

Graded binding-site bins — the measured effect is a gradient, the predicted one is flat

Bins are per-assay quantiles of d (distance from the variant's mutated positions to the other entity); B1 = farthest, B5 = closest. One grey line per assay (16 usable), thick line = median. Mean rank is scale-free, so assays are comparable.